If it's been a while since you've visited Superior Public Library, we invite you to stop in to browse our collection, use a computer, or access our free Wi-Fi! We're open to the public Monday through Friday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and until 7 p.m. on Tuesdays. Masks are required at all times and patrons should limit their visit to one hour. Prefer contactless service? We are open for curbside pickup from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Saturdays! Call us to schedule your pickup appointment. You can also use your library card to access our online resources! Visit our website for downloadable books, audiobooks, and magazines, as well as free newspapers and even free classes you can take from the comfort of your own home!

Our Tournament of Books wraps up this week! Make sure to submit your Championship round brackets by 5 p.m. on Friday, April 9 for a chance to win a prize! Stay tuned to find out which book is the winner of March Book Madness at the library!

The annual One Book Northland program gives readers throughout the region the opportunity to read a selected book together and participate in programming and discussion about the book. This year's One Book Northland selection is The Nickel Boys by Colson

Whitehead. We invite you to read the book and join us for a virtual book discussion on April 28 at 6 p.m. We're also hosting an online screening of the award-winning Netflix documentary, "13th," on April 14 at 6 p.m. Please visit our website for details.

The Friends of the Library collect book donations at the library every Wednesday from 9 to 11 a.m. Bring your donations of gently-used books, movies, magazines, and audiobooks to the front entrance and they'll be on hand to accept your items. Help support the library's Book Corner and future book sales by donating the items you no longer need to the Friends of the Library!

The library is proud to partner with the Wisconsin Bureau of Consumer Protection to offer a free virtual program all about tenant and landlord rights & responsibilities. Join us April 27 at 6 p.m. and learn the laws regarding rental properties in Wisconsin. Send an email to mehlel@superiorlibrary.org to receive a link to the presentation.
