Superior Public Library offers Outdoor Storytime at Billings Park every Tuesday at 10:30 a.m.! Join us at Pavilion 2 for stories, songs, crafts, and FUN -- rain or shine!

Has your child or teen earned prizes by participating in our Summer Reading Program? Stop by the library on Tuesdays from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. to pick up the prizes they've earned! We've got GREAT prizes for all ages, plus all finishers earn a FREE book of their choosing!

Join us at Billings Park on July 22 for a FREE kid's program with Lori Danz from the Superior School Forest and get the SCOOP on animal poop! How much doo-doo you really know about animal poop? Join us at 2 p.m. in Pavilion 2 for this educational and entertaining program!

Children's entertainer Dan the Monkey Man joins us at Billings Park's Pavilion 2 on July 22 at 6:30 p.m. for a fun and interactive kid's program especially for the little ones in your family! Let's get together and sing some songs!

KEEP CALM
BOOK CLUB

Our Virtual Book Club for adults will meet July 28 at 6 p.m. to discuss Leave the World Behind by Rumaan Alam, a provocative and suspenseful novel about two families thrown together during a global crisis. For our August 25 meeting we'll read Evvie Drake Starts Over by Linda Holmes, a heartwarming novel about starting over, facing your fears and letting people in. Copies of the books can be requested from the library. Receive a link to the online discussion by emailing mehlel@superiorlibrary.org. We hope to resume in-person book club discussions in September--stay tuned for details!

Curbside pickup service will continue on Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. through the summer. If you haven't tried our convenient pickup service, give it a try! Give us a call at 715-394-8860 to schedule a pickup and we'll bring your items outside at your scheduled time. It's fast and easy!
